Set Of 5 Ukiyo-e Prints

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 47 cm

Height : 63 cm

Description

Ukiyo-e printsSet of 5 prints illustrating dynamic theatrical and cultural themes, characteristic of the masters of the Utagawa schoolEdo and early Meiji periodsThe framed prints on the far left and right depict kabuki actors in intense, dramatic aragoto (bravura style) poses, a key theme of 19th-century ukiyo-e artistsThe lightly masked prints in the background depict classical subgenres, including beautiful women (bijin-ga) and figures in picturesque landscapesThe small horizontal frame in the center front contains an Ainu ethnographic scene by artist Kobayashi Eitaku. Entitled "Aïnous eating and drinking", it depicts Aïnous sharing a meal and holding dried fish4 vertical works: 47.5 cm wide, 63 cm high and 1 cm deepHorizontal work: 49 cm wide, 32 cm high and 1 cm deepAll works are framed,

Dealer

Vintitch
Modern furniture
Mobile : +32478803943

Groenstraat 29
Opwijk 1745

showing some freckling and age-related wear19th-century Japanese artMore photos on vintitch.com