Description

Paulette BARDY (1914-1966) - Oil on panel - Scène intime sur la plage de Cabourg Oil on panel depicting a scene of amorous intimacy on the beach at Cabourg in Normandy by modernist artist Paulette Bardy (1914-1966) Signature lower right Paulette Bardy is known for her landscapes, her scenes of Parisian booksellers or her scenes of Normandy beaches, painted in the manner of Eugène Boudin (scenes of high society in the early 20th century). Alongside this production, Paulette Bardy developed a much more confidential, modern and subversive output: erotic pastiches and scenes of amorous intimacy on these same beaches. Visible at Galerie Courcelles Antiquités, 97 rue de Courcelles, in Paris's 17th arrondissement.
