Set Of 4 Huaniao Embroideries On Silk

450 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silk

Width : 44 cm

Height : 77 cm

Description

Set of 4 Huaniao embroideries on silkTraditional East Asian embroideries on the theme "Flowers and Birds"These panels draw heavily on Chinese Cantonese export embroideries from the late Qing dynasty, or similar Japanese silk panels dating from the late 19th to mid-20th centuriesEach panel depicts a distinct seasonal scene combining specific species of birds, trees and flowers (such as plum blossoms, bamboo or chrysanthemums)In Asian art, these combinations traditionally carry auspicious symbolic meanings, such as longevity, seasonal harmony and marital bliss.They are presented in elegant gold-edged frames, with paper-covered mats that accentuate the elongated vertical formatFrom left to right:Frame: 44 cm wide and 77 cm high, silk embroidery: 27 cm wide and 54 cm highFrame:

Dealer

Vintitch
Modern furniture
Mobile : +32478803943

Groenstraat 29
Opwijk 1745

43 cm wide and 73 cm high, silk embroidery: 27 cm wide and 50 cm highFrame: 44 cm wide and 72 cm high, silk embroidery: 27 cm wide and 49 cm highFrame: 45 cm wide and 76 cm high, silk embroidery: 29 cm wide and 53 cm high