Description

Important oil on canvas painting by the Italian artist Giuseppe Pesa, executed in the mid-20th century. The artwork depicts a charming mountain landscape crossed by a clear flowing stream, enlivened by scattered rocks and surrounded by lush vegetation. In the background, gentle mountain slopes open onto a peaceful valley, while a small group of houses can be seen nestled among the trees, enhancing the serene and luminous atmosphere of the scene. The palette, composed of delicate shades of green, blue, and violet, highlights the artist's refined use of colour and gives the painting a pleasing Post-Impressionist character. Particularly noteworthy is the treatment of light, which envelops the landscape and is reflected in the waters of the stream. The painting is signed lower
