Description

A finely proportioned French Art Deco side table of exceptional quality, showcasing the luxurious contrast between richly striped macassar ebony and lighter satinwood detailing. The oval top is beautifully balanced, centred with an inlaid floral motif that adds a subtle decorative flourish without disturbing the clean, architectural lines of the piece. The apron is crisply finished, sitting above four elegantly turned and tapered legs, each reeded to create vertical rhythm and visual lift. These refined supports give the table a light, poised stance while remaining strong and well-grounded. Beneath, a shaped oval undertier mirrors the form of the top, providing practical surface space while reinforcing the symmetry and flow so characteristic of high-quality Art Deco design. striking linear grain throughout, its depth and warmth enhanced by satinwood accents that introduce contrast and precision. Every element feels considered, from the proportions to the materials, resulting in a table that works equally well as a lamp table, centre table, or occasional piece within an elegant living room or interior setting. As with all our pieces, this table has been professionally polished and restored where necessary, ensuring it presents beautifully while retaining its original character.
