Description

This large 57 cm high lamp named Eres was a victim of its own success and the stock was quickly sold out, a beautiful and original creation in chromed steel by Maison Seylumière; This beautiful and original late twentieth-century ambient lamp is a showpiece, well typified and decorative, in good condition and equipped with a low-energy serpentine bulb. It is ecological and takes us back to the plant world in the manner of a bulbous flower with luminous petals, that of a beautifully composed mirror, a decorative and original quality piece in very good condition.
