Description

An elegant set consisting of four Richard Ginori porcelain plates, part of the prestigious Gio Ponti collection, inspired by the allegorical theme of the Four Seasons: Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter. The decorations, created according to the famous designs by Gio Ponti, depict stylized figures with the refined and elegant taste typical of the great master of Italian design. The motifs are rendered in delicate polychrome on a white background and represent one of the most celebrated examples of the collaboration between Gio Ponti and the historic Manifattura di Doccia - Richard Ginori. The plates retain the manufacturer's mark on the back and are accompanied by original Richard Ginori certificates of authenticity, which attest to their inclusion in the official collection.
