Description

GLAZED STYLE REGENCE WINDOW IN OAK from the XIXe century
Elegant Regency-style glazed bonnetière in solid oak, opening with a single door adorned with relief carved decoration. The facade is embellished with wide movement moldings, a central rosette and a beautiful glass section allowing a refined presentation of objects or collections. The overhanging cornice, scrolled feet and scrolled decor bear witness to the Regency inspiration, interpreted with quality by French workshops of the late XIXe century. The interior, fitted with several adjustable shelves, offers ample storage capacity while retaining a beautiful visual lightness thanks to its glass door. This piece of furniture features a warm brown patina highlighting the oak grain. Its slender silhouette
