Description

Pair of gilded wooden cherubs, Venice
Period: late 17th century
An elegant pair of Venetian cherubs carved from lacquered and gilded wood, dating from the late 17th to the early 18th century. The figures, finely modeled and full of movement, express a lively and typically Baroque grace, with dynamic poses and sweet, intense faces. The gilding and lacquering are entirely original, as are all structural parts: the piece is in excellent condition, free of breaks or repairs, preserving its authenticity intact. The warm luminosity of the original gold enhances the forms and lends great refinement to the whole. A decorative pair of great charm and quality, ideal for classical settings yet capable of blending elegantly even in more contemporary contexts.
