Description

Beautiful round copper box decorated in the traditional cloisonné enamel technique, made in China during the Guangxu period (1875-1908), at the end of the 19th century. This elegant box features a rich polychrome floral decoration on a turquoise background entirely covered with fine scrolls, characteristic of the refined productions of this period. The interior is lined with a beautiful plain blue enamel, while the brass mounts feature a natural antique patina that underlines the authenticity of the piece. Dimensions: Diameter: 13 cm Height: 7 cm
