Pair Of Metal And Leather Chairs, After Charlotte Perriand For Les Arcs, Circa 1960

1 250 EUR

Signature : Charlotte Perriand

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

This pair of chairs is inspired by the work of Charlotte Perriand, an iconic French designer who collaborated with major figures such as Jean Prouvé and Le Corbusier. Originally designed for the Les Arcs resort, they embody a perfect blend of aesthetics and functionality. Their suspended seats, made from top-stitched cowhide leather, combine thickness and sturdiness, with a bronze hue that adds a warm, timeless touch. These seats are attached to a chromed metal tubular structure by riveted cuffs, a technical detail that reinforces both their elegance and solidity. Leather, both hard-wearing and soft to the touch, guarantees exceptional comfort, while the sober, refined metal structure highlights the suspension of the seats, Charlotte Perriand's iconic signature. Integrating these chairs into your
