Description

Oil on canvas. Original painting. With a macabre, provocative irony, Van Gogh's smoking skull stands as a visceral taunt against the rigid anatomical academism of his youth. The cigarette lit between the naked jaws lends death a vital paradox, transforming the canvas into a memento mori imbued with black humor and raw modernity. This is the early testament of a genius who preferred to paint the tragic pulse of existence rather than the cold imitation of reality. Image dimensions unframed: 30 x 41 cm / 51 x 62 cm with exclusive custom frame.
