Description

Original print by Claude Garache (1929-2023), a major artist of French contemporary art. Signed in pencil and numbered, this 1980 work is characteristic of his work devoted to the representation of the female body. Through a subtle interplay of values, light and material, the artist brings out a presence that is both mysterious and powerful. A sober, refined composition, emblematic of Garache's universe, sought after by collectors of modern art and original prints.
