Chekhovich - Original Exhibition Poster Galerie Pétridès, Paris, June 1950s

170 EUR

Signature : Tchekhovitch

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Length : 67

Width : 50,5

Description

This original poster announces an exhibition by the painter Chekhovich at Galerie P. Pétridès, located at 53 rue de la Boétie in Paris.Printed by the renowned Desjobert studio, it bears witness to Paris's post-war artistic dynamism.The work reproduced depicts two elegant women in a refined interior, a subject characteristic of French figurative painting in the mid-20th century.The style is distinguished by a free, colorful and expressive touch, close to the École de Paris.Chekhovich develops an intimate universe where salon scenes, elegant women and worldly atmospheres take center stage.His compositions favored color and movement over academic realism.The Galerie Pétridès was one of the most active Parisian galleries of its time.Founded by Greek-born art dealer and collector Paul Pétridès,

Dealer

Delahaye antiquités
Généraliste 19th 20 th
Mobile : +33628330196

18 avenue Trudaine
Paris 75009

it played an important role in the promotion of many modern artists.In particular, it exhibited well-known figures from French and international painting.