Description

original color print by Joseph Goerg, a French painter, engraver and illustrator renowned for his poetic, humanistic universe. Signed in pencil by the artist and numbered 44/75, this work entitled Le Coup de Foudre illustrates with finesse one of Goerg's favorite themes: human relationships, love and femininity.The composition features a couple surrounded by flowers in a warm, dreamlike atmosphere, while a female nude enriches the work's symbolic dimension. The expressive drawing, luminous colors and freedom of line are characteristic of the personal style developed by the artist throughout his career.Professor at the École nationale supérieure des Beaux-Arts and member of the Académie des Beaux-Arts, Joseph Goerg is today represented in numerous public and private collections.
