Description

Elegant creation from the Maison Mauboussin, this spectacular band ring in 750/°° white gold (18 KT) perfectly illustrates the contemporary jewelry expertise of the famous Parisian house. In accordance with the regulations applicable to certain works of jewelry, this ring has been exempted from hallmarking by the state guarantee services (with attestation). The "Je le Veux" model is distinguished by its particularly refined openwork architecture. The frame is composed of a succession of delicately intertwined shuttle-shaped elements, creating an elegant play of light and transparency. Each shuttle is set with two brilliant-cut diamonds, forming a continuous pavement of remarkable intensity. The arrangement of these motifs also lends the ring a highly characteristic cut-out contour that visually lightens its substantial volume while reinforcing its graphic, contemporary character. The whole is entirely paved with brilliant-cut diamonds for a total estimated weight of around 4.20 carats, offering exceptional presence on the finger as well as remarkable brilliance from every angle. The openwork design of the setting allows light to pass through the work and further magnify the brilliance of the stones. Both spectacular and comfortable thanks to its studied construction, this ring is one of the emblematic creations of the Maison Mauboussin, renowned for its modern and daring approach to French high jewelry. The ring is, on its edge, signed Mauboussin and bears its original reference. A luxurious and luminous piece of jewelry, ideal for everyday use as well as for special occasions. Total diamond weight estimated for approx. 4.20 carats Gross weight: 14.60 g Finger size: 58 - unmodified (current diameter approx. 1.80 cm - soft ring / US size approx. 8.5) Condition: imperceptible micro-scratches on the metal, natural and characteristic inclusions in the diamonds not visible to the naked eye.
