Description

Elegant Napoleon III-period blackened-wood living-room shelf, resting on four turned legs and featuring a remarkable openwork structure decorated with scrolls and volutes. This refined decoration, inspired by ironwork, lends the piece a great visual lightness, while highlighting the decorative taste characteristic of the second half of the 19th century..The piece features three display shelves topped by a richly agitated openwork gallery. Its slender silhouette and particularly elegant decoration make it ideal for displaying objets d'art, porcelain, books or nick-knacks. French workmanship from the second half of the 19th century.French work of the Napoleon III period, circa
