3 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Marble

Description

An elegant Empire-style coffee table, crafted in the early 19th century from fine mahogany and embellished with refined mahogany feather veneers, which highlight its rich color and the depth of its grain. The circular top is topped with prestigious Belgian Black marble, a material particularly prized in the period's ceremonial furnishings for its compact surface and intense dark color, which creates a refined contrast with the warm tones of the wood. The structure is distinguished by its characteristic carved central support, enriched with decorative elements in the classical style and connected to the top by elegant curved legs. The circular base exhibits a formal balance typical of the Empire style, with sober and monumental lines inspired by ancient art. A piece of great visual impact and remarkable
