Description

Refined coffee table crafted in rosewood and inlaid with other fruitwoods. The table is distinguished by its slender, arched legs, topped with feral legs, embellished with geometric and floral bronze decorations, and joined by a crosspiece. The inlays on the oval-shaped top, featuring geometric and floral motifs, a score, and a musical instrument, add a touch of elegance. Both the top and the underside are adorned with a gilded bronze band. On the front, the table features a small drawer with a gilded bronze key, ideal for storing small items. This is a piece of great taste and refinement, capable of lending class and elegance to any room. French manufacture, from the Napoleon III period, around the mid-19th century.Measurements: H x W x D 75 x 50 x 35.5cm
