Description

This elegant bust depicting a noblewoman in French aristocratic style is crafted from fine white statuary marble and features refined craftsmanship. The figure is depicted with her head slightly tilted, in a serene and composed expression that enhances the nobility of her features and the grace of the whole. The elaborate hairstyle, embellished with a delicate floral motif, and the rich drapery of her dress demonstrate the remarkable sculptural skill in rendering detail. The soft folds of the fabric, the bow at the décolleté, and the meticulous modeling of the face lend the work great elegance and formal harmony. The sculpture bears the signature "Charles Le Brun" (1619-1690), a celebrated French painter and decorator, on the side, adding to its collectible and decorative appeal. The
