Description

Refined writing desk entirely veneered in cherry, embellished with elegant rosewood (ebony) inlays. The piece is distinguished by its truncated pyramid legs and four ergonomic drawers, ideal for storing objects, which open with lost-wax cast bronze keys. The desk also features a practical small work or writing table, located under the main top and opened with a pull, covered in green fabric. The inlays and veneer enhance the aesthetics of the piece, creating a refined geometric pattern and enhancing the wood grain. Furthermore, it is a round or free standing writing desk, as it is also veneered on the back. This writing desk is a piece of great class and refinement, capable of lending a touch of elegance and antiquity to any space. Tuscan manufacture from the Louis XVI period, around
