Description

Refined and unique chest of drawers, of modest size, made of solid walnut veneer and inlaid with walnut and fruitwood. The piece features truncated pyramid legs, typical of the Neoclassical period, and two ergonomic and practical drawers for storing objects. The rich decorative effect is achieved by the inlays on the front, sides, and top, featuring geometric lines and interwoven floral decorations. The top also features a small panel depicting two birds drinking from a fountain. This chest of drawers exudes great taste and refinement, adding a touch of class and antiquity to any space. Made in Emilia-Romagna, during the Louis XVI period, around the second half of the 18th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 85 x 106 x

46.5cm
