Description

A vide poche or for serving raw fish...In lacquered carved wood...Slightly hollow...With colors on both sides...And with all the decoration in the imitation of a brush-painted fish...The eye is in blown glass...It's a thing of beauty...In perfect condition, just a little color fart that's not really visible as it blends in with the decorations around...!And certainly small flaws typical of handwork...I think it's from JAPAN...Manufactured in WAKASA...Weight ... 98 gr
