Description

Rare Viennese Bronze - Polychrome Sparrow FamilyCharming polychrome Viennese bronze depicting a family of sparrows consisting of a pair of birds watching over their young.This naturalistic scene perfectly illustrates the craftsmanship of Viennese workshops from the late 19th and early 20th centuries, renowned for the quality of their engraving, the finesse of their details, and the realism of their animal depictions.Viennese bronze artists paid particular attention to the observation of nature. The birds' postures, the meticulous rendering of the plumage, and the expression of the scene attest to remarkable artistic mastery.Animal subjects are among the most iconic works of Viennese bronze art. Dogs, cats, birds, rodents, and exotic animals were rendered with striking realism and often
