PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Vase Decorated With Dragons, Japan, Meiji Era (1868-1912)

1 100 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Diameter : 28

Height : 53

Description

An imposing chiseled bronze urn. The upper part is adorned with a dragon in the round, coiling around the neck of the vase amid swirling clouds. The body of the vase is covered with a relief depicting a scene of birds among the branches of a flowering plum tree (ume)--a motif symbolizing rebirth and longevity. In the lower section, two turtles (minogame) are depicted amidst the waves--a traditional symbol of happiness and long life.Japan, Meiji era (1868-1912).Bronze, relief casting, chiseled.Height: 53 cm, diameter: 28 cm.Condition: good, visible dent on the belly, slight scratches on the patina.

Dealer

Antiques Urbaniak

Arts et métiers des XVIIIe et XIXe siècles

Mobile : 0048 609 682 083

10 rue Wielka

Poznan 61774