Description

Louis XV-style humpback desk, with marquetry and gilded bronze fittings. Elegant Louis XV-style humpback desk, richly veneered in rosewood and palisander, featuring remarkable geometric diamond-patterned marquetry on all sides. Its flowing silhouette rests on four curved legs adorned with finely chiseled gilded bronze finials and clogs. The drop-leaf reveals a refined interior comprising three curved drawers veneered with burl wood, as well as a writing surface covered in gilded leather with small iron studs. This model combines decorative elegance and functionality thanks to its seamlessly integrated storage spaces. Desks known as "humpback desks" or "sloping secretaries" are among the most sought-after forms of Louis XV-inspired furniture, characterized by their sloping lid revealing
