Small mahogany coffee table featuring a drawer that slides out from the side and a small pull tab under the tabletop. The drawer opens via a mechanism activated by pressing a button located under the table. Crafted in mahogany with high-quality chiseled and gilded bronze fittings. Table by François Linke, unsigned but whose quality, form, and cascading bronze fittings allow this table to be linked to the creations of this cabinetmaker, circa 1880. Two very similar models are referenced in the artist's catalogue raisonné: François Linke 1855-1946: The Belle Époque of French Furniture by Christopher Payne, page 66. Table fully restored, varnished, in perfect condition.
