Description

Lacquered and painted curved chest of drawers from the first half of the 18th century. Sicily. This piece is distinguished by its sinuous lines and rich decoration. Its structure features a curved profile, both laterally and at the front, and it rests on arched cabriole legs. The body of the piece is entirely lacquered in dark green and features gilded scrolls on both the front and sides depicting painted gallant and pastoral scenes. The figures wear typical 18th-century clothing. The chest's top is also made of stained marbled wood and follows the curved lines of the entire piece's structure. The gilded finishes and decorations on the drawers, sides, and legs feature plant and floral motifs. Dimensions: height 89.5 cm, width 108.5 cm, depth 52.5 cm
