Description

A collection of sketches of female silhouettes on paper. 4 expressive figure drawings, created in charcoal on paper. Dynamic gestural studies, imbued with minimalism, depicting female nudes and silhouettes in motion. The artist uses unique, fluid lines combined with a distinct trail of dark, dotted accent marks that follow the alignment of the figures' spines and body axes. A single large sheet of matte, neutral taupe-colored cardboard has been precisely cut to form four distinct rectangular openings. This creates a balanced negative space and allows the individual gestural drawings to "breathe" visually. The frame features a two-tone profile with a blackened or dark outer edge paired with a prominent, recessed gold inner rim. The frame's thickness lends it considerable physical weight and presence, transforming four
