Description

An elegant, domed box in gilded bronze, richly embossed and chiseled, a French piece from the second half of the 19th century, inspired by the Neo-Gothic and Neo-Renaissance styles then in vogue during the Second Empire.The entire piece is adorned with a relief decoration of finely rendered fleurs-de-lis, foliage, scrolls, and small flowers, extending across all sides. The arched lid features its original movable handle and opens to reveal an interior lined with red velvet, creating a particularly refined contrast with the gilded metal.The front features a lock framed by openwork decoration, while the sides feature a rich symmetrical design of stylized plant motifs. The meticulous execution of the decoration and the quality of the embossing attest to a beautifully crafted decorative piece, likely intended to serve
