Description

Elegant and rare Art Nouveau parlour suite dating from the late 19th century, crafted in finely carved walnut and comprising a centre table, a sofa and four matching seats including two armchairs and two chairs. The suite immediately stands out for the exceptional quality of its carving and the richness of its decorative vocabulary. Flowing Art Nouveau lines are combined with floral motifs, openwork decoration and beautifully carved allegorical female figures. The table features an attractive shaped top supported by an elaborate base adorned with fully carved female busts, stylised foliage and refined geometric details, creating a light and highly decorative appearance. The sofa and seating follow the same decorative language, with impressive backs embellished by draped
