Description

Tabako-Ire, tobacco box, Japan, late Edo / early Meiji period, 19th century. Leather body, silk embroidery, main clasp in silver, small clasp inside made of bone. Decorated with a dragon swirling in clouds on a purplish-blue background. The silver clasp features another dragon (kanamono). Two bronze loops on the top allow the pouch to be hung from a kimono. The original color is very well preserved and still quite vivid on the inside of the pouch (see photo 5). In fair condition. A very beautiful collector's item. Free shipping to mainland France. Please contact me by email. I am available for further information or additional photos.
