Description

An important late 18th-century Florentine mirror, crafted from finely carved wood and gilded with gold leaf. The ornate openwork cornice is decorated with elegant floral motifs and two refined mythical animals facing each other, an ornamental element typical of late 18th-century Tuscan craftsmanship. The frame displays exceptional craftsmanship, featuring volutes, flowers, and foliage motifs carved in full relief, with an antique gilding that retains the charm and patina of age. The mirror, set within a band featuring a twisted-cord motif, further enhances the decorative significance of the piece as a whole. In terms of proportions, richness of carving, and compositional elegance, this mirror is an excellent piece of furniture for classical interiors, historic residences, or high-quality
