Description

Refined and unique lost-wax bronze sculpture, mounted on a carved and molded green marble base, not contemporary with the original sculpture. The head, which draws on classical styles and depictions, depicts a satyr with a slightly upward gaze and a joyful expression. This sculpture displays the artist's skill in detailing the face and hair, as well as the classic features of the pointed ears. It is a work of great taste and refinement, capable of lending a touch of elegance and antiquity to any space.
Florentine manufacture, late 16th century.
