Description

Refined set of six solid walnut chairs, carved and finely painted in tempera. The chairs feature a rather linear backrest and curved legs, joined by slats, in alternating mustard and white colors, lending a refined touch to the overall effect. The padded seat offers exceptional comfort and is upholstered in a unique velvet fabric featuring alternating shades of gold, purple, and white, with a floral motif. These six chairs exude great taste and elegance, adding a touch of class and antiquity to any setting. Made in the Marche region (central Italy), they date back to the Louis XV period, around the mid-18th century.
