

Late 18th-century Game Table

1 150 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Length : 62

Width : 63.5

Height : 76

Description

18th-century game table, with a marquetry chessboard and chess set included. Elegant 18th-century game table made of precious marquetry wood, featuring a magnificent herringbone pattern and a marquetry chessboard. This distinctive piece rests on four curved legs adorned with bronze feet, typical of furniture from this period. The table features a central drawer containing a complete chess set, making it as decorative as it is functional.

Dealer

La boutique antique

Antiquités

Mobile : 0609845727

19 boulevard Albert 1er

Antibes 06600