Description

"Allegory of Prudence," oil on canvas, 17th century
An important 17th-century allegorical painting depicting Prudence, a theme dear to Baroque moral and philosophical thought. The composition features an elegantly dressed young woman, wrapped in a rich red cloak, standing next to an elderly bearded figure immersed in a meditative pose. The visual dialogue between youth and experience alludes to the value of wisdom gained over time. The canvas is set in a classic-style ebonized wooden frame with gilded moldings, which effectively enhances the work's historical character. The overall condition is good
