Description

An elegant architectural shrine in carved and gilded wood dating from the 19th century, characterized by a refined classical design featuring fluted columns, Corinthian capitals, a central arch, and a striking upper crown embellished with an openwork balustrade.The piece echoes the structure of a small sacred architectural form and stands out for the decorative quality of its carving and its beautiful antique gilding, preserved with a pleasing patina that attests to its authenticity and the passage of time. The harmonious proportions and remarkable depth give the object a particularly striking presence, making it ideal as a decorative element in classical settings, collections of sacred art, or antique contexts.Inside is a painting depicting the Madonna and Child, created at a
