Description

Pair of "Les Gitanes" bookends made of polychrome-painted porcelain in black, white, and gold, with a rectangular base, signed "ROBJ" on each piece. Jean Born founded his ROBJ company in 1908 and produced ceramic objects. Upon his death in 1922, the company was taken over by Lucien Willemetz, who introduced playful and colorful objects, often humorous. The Great Depression of 1930 would bring this wonderful adventure to an end.
