

---

Dolman Of The Imperial Guard's Mounted Chasseurs. Second Empire.

2 250 EUR

Signature : Second Empire

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Other

Length : -

Width : -

Diameter : -

Height : -

Depth : q

Description

1857-style dolman, made entirely of green cloth, fastening straight down the front with pewter bell buttons stamped with the crowned imperial eagle. The front is trimmed with white wool braid and five rows of buttons. The back is decorated with a Hungarian bow made of white trimmings. Collar in cloth with white braiding. Facing in madder-dyed cloth edged with white wool braid in a pointed shape. Unbleached canvas lining dated to the second quarter of the 1870s. Inner waistband in fawn morocco leather. Sold as is with minor restorations and moth holes; see photos. France. Second Empire.

Dealer

Cartouche 12

Souvenirs Historiques et Tableaux

Mobile : 0688971349

Rue du Pin 46100 Figeac

Lunan 46100