Description

Mazarin desk in red tortoiseshell marquetry and engraved brass, featuring six drawers with convex fronts and a central drawer with a concave front surmounting a small window. The top, front, and sides feature a finely chiseled brass decoration on tortoiseshell. The top depicts the scene of the abduction of Persephone, surmounted by a canopy with a mascaron and scrollwork and resting on lambrequins, surrounded by animals, birds, and musicians, including a donkey and a monkey. The desk rests on tubular legs joined in pairs by X-shaped braces and finished with gilded bronze spindle feet.Louis XIV periodCondition: usedListed for saleH: 81 cm, W: 120 cm, D: 71 cm
