Description

An elegant English-style coffee table, made during the 20th century, perfect as a versatile and refined piece of furniture. Design: The piece features a classic "drop-leaf" structure with folding side wings, allowing for easy adjustment of the tabletop surface. Details: The piece features a convenient front drawer, characterized by a refined interplay of inlays and contrasting wood bands. Structure: The table rests on a finely turned central column base that branches into two curved legs, providing both stability and a balanced aesthetic elegance. Condition: Excellent condition, with a warm wood tone that makes it ideal for both classic and contemporary interiors, serving perfectly as a side table or lamp table.
