Description

"Saint Paul the Apostle" Full-length wooden sculpture resting on a pedestal Artist: Lombard master from the late 17th century Finely carved and engraved linden wood. Dimensions: H: 63 cm W: 28 cm D: 20 cm Excellent condition, no restorations or alterations The sculpture depicts the Saint, traveler and spreader of Christianity, standing with exceptionally draped robes, walking with the Gospel under his arm, intent on bringing the Word of God to the world. The movement of the tunic, with its extraordinary succession of folds, is a testament to the artist's exceptional sculptural skill. The facial expression is remarkable, characterized by a long, forked beard, which lends a fascinating solemn tone to this important figure of the Church. The figure of Saint Paul is a perfect fusion of realism, dynamism, and emotional pathos, an excellent example of Italian Baroque, capable of engaging the viewer with a work of art that appears alive and pulsating with energy. The long staff held by the saint, which runs alongside the sculpture in a straight line, further emphasizes the exceptional movement. The work is in very good condition, intact and without any missing parts, showing only normal signs of age. The linden wood features a magnificent golden patina that gives the sculpture a luminous aura and a very pleasing appearance. We issue a stamped and signed certificate of authenticity guaranteeing the period, provenance, and all characteristics of the work, drawn up by an antique dealer affiliated with FIMA (ITALIAN FEDERATION OF ART DEALERS). Delivery in Italy and throughout Europe within 3 days of receiving the bank transfer. Shipping is tracked and insured, and the item is shipped with careful shock-resistant packaging inside a custom-made wooden crate.
