

Mid-century Style Danish Teak Desk, Designed By Erik Brouer For Brouer Furniture (1960s)

1 675 EUR

Signature : Erik Brouer

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Width : 145

Height : 73

Depth : 75

Description

Office furniture - Mid-century Danish style
Mid-century teak desk from the 1960s with built-in bookcase, designed by Erik Brouer for Brouer Møbelfabrik - sold without a key. Dimensions: 145 x 75 cm, H: 73 cm. Erik Brouer and Arne Vodder: it should be noted that the former was primarily a cabinetmaker and the latter a designer. Both left their mark on the golden age of Scandinavian design, each with their own style and contribution. Erik Brouer: cabinetmaker and founder of Brouer Møbelfabrik (1956) in Denmark. Arne Vodder: renowned Danish designer and architect, trained by Finn Juhl. The built-in bookshelf at the back is a practical feature, ideal for displaying your favorite books or decorative items. For optimal organization, the desk is equipped with six

Dealer

Dvgallery

Antiquaire

Mobile : 0476802485

Rue de la station

Linkebeek 1630

dovetail drawers. With its striking design and superior functionality, this desk will undoubtedly become the centerpiece of your home or office, perfectly meeting your personal needs.