220 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Ceramic

Description

This is an hourglass-shaped (or diabolo-shaped) vase, with a wide, flared rim at the top, a very narrow neck in the middle, and a widened conical base. It is a characteristic form of Coujault's work. Height: 20 cm Diameter: 13 cm Weight: 830 g Hand-signed J.C. Courjault was born on May 8, 1940, in Thouars and died in Vouvray on June 5, 2022. A graduate of the Bourges School of Fine Arts, he trained with renowned ceramists Jacqueline and Jean Lerat before joining the Keraluc factory in Quimper. Disagreeing with management, he left Keraluc around 1973 to open his own workshop, "La Cerisaie", near Chinon, where he continued a production very close to that developed in Quimper, mainly vases, lamp bases and candlesticks in salt stoneware.
