Description

An exceptional 18th-century Provençal painted canvas from Aix-en-Provence, part of a set of three large, monumental decorative panels. This refined composition depicts a pastoral scene animated by figures in a rural landscape, typical of the decorative style of Provençal bourgeois residences and mansions of the era.Set within an elegant frame painted with rocaille motifs, floral garlands, and ornamental scrolls, several figures move through a bucolic setting: a young woman watches over two children busy picking flowers near a country house, while a figure perched in a tree adds a lively touch to the scene. The whole is enhanced by a soft, luminous palette of pastel tones characteristic of 18th-century Aix-en-Provence interiors.The spectacular dimensions of these canvases--nearly 3 meters
