Description

An elegant pair of wrought-iron pedestals, crafted in the 1950s, inspired by the architectural forms and proportions of ancient Rome. Their refined silhouettes and balanced proportions evoke the timeless elegance of ancient columns and ceremonial pedestals, reinterpreted through the craftsmanship of the mid-20th century.Hand-forged, these pedestals feature clean architectural lines and a beautiful patina, making them ideal supports for sculptures, urns, busts, or decorative objects. Their understated design allows them to blend seamlessly into both classic and contemporary interiors, while their classical inspiration lends them an air of timelessness and grandeur.Perfectly suited for interior design, galleries, entryways, or porches, these pedestals combine decorative versatility
