

Neoclassical Italian Marble Mantelpiece With A Lion's Head Motif, Early 20th Century

11 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Marble

© Cliché photo: Giovanni Perini

Description

Early 20th-century Italian neoclassical marble mantelpiece with lion's head motif. An elegant early 20th-century Italian marble mantelpiece, crafted in a refined neoclassical style. Characterized by its balanced architectural proportions and finely carved details, it features an imposing lion's head at the center of the frieze, a traditional symbol of strength, nobility, and protection. Crafted from high-quality Italian marble, this piece reflects the enduring influence of classical architecture, with clean lines and harmonious forms inspired by the great decorative traditions of ancient Rome and the Italian Renaissance. The sculpted lion mask serves as a striking focal point, adding character and sculptural depth to the composition. Its impressive dimensions make it ideal for large

Dealer

Florin Antiques

Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 0034 671 362 406

Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31

Madrid 28004

living rooms, libraries, period homes, boutique hotels, or luxury interior design projects. Whether installed as a functional mantelpiece or showcased as a striking architectural feature, it brings timeless elegance and historic charm to any space. A magnificent example of early 20th-century Italian craftsmanship and decorative arts. Dimensions: Height: 160 cm Width: 180 cm Condition: Very good condition. Slight signs of wear due to age and use. Well-preserved marble surface with a beautiful natural patina.