Danish Dragon Model 1773 Pallask

1 950 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Rare Danish Model 1773 Pallask Dragon. One of the largest regulation cavalry swords we have ever seen, with a total length of approximately 115 cm. Straight blade with a double fuller, approximately 96 cm long. Solid brass basket-hilt with an apple-shaped pommel and a leather-wrapped grip secured by a filigree clasp. "VB" hallmark on the crossguard. Steel scabbard included. Some surface rust in places; a light oiling would be beneficial.
