Description

We are pleased to present this spectacular antique walnut wardrobe, crafted in Italy in the mid-19th century during the Louis-Philippe period.This wardrobe is extremely rare due to its compact size. Devoid of excessive ornamentation, it stands out for its simplicity and clean lines. The two central doors are paneled, featuring symmetrical and mirror-image vertical grain patterns that highlight the natural beauty of the wood. A distinctive feature are the two large decorative side columns, entirely turned with knotwork, sphere, and scroll motifs. The upper section is topped by a linear, molded cornice, embellished just below with a delicate decoration of carved spheres. The base rests on turned onion-shaped feet, typical of the 19th century.The wood features a splendid warm medium-dark brown
